

Data Protection Privacy Notice for Students & Parents

How we use student and parent information

Issue Date: 17.09.2019

1. The categories of student information that we collect, hold and share include

- Personal information (such as name, unique student number and address)
- Nominated next of kin contact information (name, phone number)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, health and life experiences likely to affect learning, childcare needs, country of birth and free ELATT meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Educational Performance (such as reports and exam grades)
- Destinations where students go after leaving us
- Relevant medical information

The categories of parent information that we collect is limited to name and contact information (phone numbers, address and email etc). Any additional information disclosed to us is held only if it is relevant to the support of their child (16-18 olds).

2. Why we collect and use this information

We use the student and parent data:

- to support student learning
- to monitor and report on student progress
- to safeguard our students, provide appropriate pastoral care and ensure their safety and wellbeing
- to assess the quality of our services and ensure continuous improvement
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to comply with the funder regulations: Education and Skills Funding Agency, an Executive Agency of the Department for Education, Cheylesmore House, Quinton Road, Coventry, CV1 2WT ("the ESFA"); Department for Education; Home Office; Local Authorities; and others; and claim the necessary funding to keep education free of charge or at a subsidised rate.

3. The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use student and parent information under Articles 6 and 9 of the General Data Protection Regulation. In particular, we process information where that processing is (i) necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which ELATT is subject, including the legitimate purpose of ensuring the safety and wellbeing of our students, (ii) where processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in ELATT, (iii) where the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for specific purposes or (iv) where processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person.

For special category data we collect and use student information where the processing is necessary for the reasons of substantial public interest, respects the essence of the right to data protection and provides for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

4. Collecting student information

Whilst the majority of student and parent information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this.

5. Storing student data

We hold student data for the duration of their education at ELATT and afterwards depending on the funding contractual instructions. Parental information is held within the student information. All information is held within a secure filing cabinet or in password protected electronic files / Maytas 5 and Proachieve systems. Before leaving ELATT, students have the opportunity to leave future contact information in order to become part of the Alumni database.

6. Why we share student information

We do not share information about our students or parents with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

7. Who we share student information with (with students' consent)

In specific circumstances, we may share student information with these organisations:

- Providers and Universities that the students attend after leaving us
- Local Authorities (Hackney, Tower Hamlets, Newham and others)
- Job Centre Plus
- Employers and employment agencies
- Department for Education (DfE)
- Home Office
- HMRC
- Exam Boards
- Health Professionals
- Police
- ELATT Trip Providers

We share information with contractors and suppliers who provide the following services:

Our Funders

We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE), ESFA, Home Office, Lottery and Local Authorities on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins ELATT funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about our students with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Maytas 5 (Management Information System (MIS) provider)

We share student and parent personal data with Maytas when necessary to correct ILR submissions.

Transport For London - TFL (for obtaining Oyster Discount Cards)

We share student personal data with TFL to enable them to obtain travel discounts, at their request

Exam Boards

We share student personal data with exam boards to facilitate legal obligation to provide examinations.

ELATT Trip Providers

We share student personal data with ELATT trip providers engaged in providing ELATT trips / visits in order for them to process travel arrangements and may include sensitive medical information in order to keep students safe whilst on ELATT organised trips / visits.

Suppliers of Email, Internet and IT services

We use email and IT services to enable the ELATT to administer communication both internally and externally and facilitate the smooth running of the ELATT. Where necessary external IT suppliers will access systems to provide support and fix issues. In all instances there will be a data protection agreement in place to safeguard information on the systems they are accessing.

8. Data collection requirements

9. Youth support services

We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 16-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996. This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- social services
- careers advisers
- The Learning Trust

For more information about services for young people, please visit the Hackney local authority website.

10. The National Pupil Database (NPD) 16- 18 olds

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about students in England. It provides evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including ELATT, local authorities and awarding bodies. We are required by law to provide information about our students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the ELATT census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data. For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided student information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:
